Historic Washington State Park

Old Washington, AR

Historic Washington offers insight into a nineteenth century community and a glimpse at the people and events of the Territorial, Antebellum, Civil War, and Reconstruction eras in Arkansas's history. Washington was an important stop on the Southwest Trail, James Bowie, Sam Houston, and Davy Crockett famously traveled through here. From 1863-1865, it served as the Confederate capital of Arkansas. Join us for a day of history - touring historic homes and buildings, a surrey ride, and a delicious lunch at Williams Tavern Restaurant.
