

“PLAY BALL!”

June 4th thru 9th, 2012
Monday - Saturday

Are you ready for some BASEBALL!?!?

Then come with us on a six day whirlwind baseball tour that includes a visit to Kansas City to see the Royals play, as well as a trip to Oklahoma City for some AAA action. Rounding out the tour will be a fun filled visit to St. Louis to see the World Champion St. Louis Cardinals!

We start this baseball extravaganza the very first night at AT&T Bricktown Ballpark in downtown Oklahoma City, where we will see the hometown Redhawks host the Iowa Cubs. In Oklahoma City we will be staying at the Hampton Inn Bricktown, which is next door to Bricktown Ballpark and in the middle of all the downtown fun and action!! After a great night in OKC, we will travel to Kansas City, where no trip is complete without a visit to world famous Arthur Bryant’s for the best barbeque in town. The following day you will be treated to a tour of Kansas City, and we will cap off the day with an evening at beautiful Kaufman Stadium where we will see the Kansas City Royals take on the Minnesota Twins. Then on to St. Louis for more great food and, of course, more baseball. Our first stop in St. Louis will be Busch Stadium, home of the World Champion Cardinals. We will have a guided tour of the stadium, including a visit to the gift shop where you can get all of your regalia for the upcoming game. Our second day in St. Louis we will tour the city. Finally, we end our baseball extravaganza at fabulous Busch Stadium for an inter-league rivalry between the Cleveland Indians and the World Champion St. Louis Cardinals! A great end to a great trip!!

This will be a fun filled, food filled, six days so if you love baseball like we do, then come with us!! This trip is sure to fill quickly, so get your name in the pot early!!
