

AUTUMN IN WEST VIRGINIA AND TENNESSEE

OCTOBER 16 - 24, 2012

- Day 1 - Travel to Grand Rivers, KY. We'll have a delicious dinner at Patti's 1880's Settlement.
- Day 2 - Our travels take us all the way across the state of Kentucky before arriving in Huntington, West Virginia for a 2 night stay.
- Day 3 - Today we explore the city of Huntington. We'll see unique handmade glassware at Blenko Glass Company. Experience life as it was in an Appalachian pioneer community at the Heritage Farm Museum and Village. A visit to the Museum of Radio and Technology will remind us of earlier years with their collections. Huntington is also home to Marshall University. We visit some points of interest at their beautiful campus.
- Day 4 - Our travels today first take us to the city of Charleston. We'll visit the West Virginia Cultural Center which will afford visitors a step-by-step walk through West Virginia's rich history. A tour of the State Capital building will also be included. Then we're on to Beckley for the night.
- Day 5 - In Beckley we will visit the Beckley Exhibition Coal Mine. There you will experience the life of a coal miner as we ride the remodeled coal car through 1500 feet of underground passages. Veteran miners guide us through the coal mining process and tell us about the great heritage of mining in West Virginia. We'll also make a stop at Tamarack. It features more than 1200 artist and businesses from around West Virginia highlighting handcrafts, artwork, food products, clothing, and souvenir items from all 55 counties. From Beckley we will make the beautiful drive to Asheville, NC for our overnight.
- Day 6 - Our travels will take us to the Great Smoky Mountains National Park. The views from atop these mountains are breathtaking! After leaving the park we'll make our way into Pigeon Forge for some lunch and shopping. We'll enjoy a two night stay in Gatlinburg at the beautiful Bearskin Lodge.
- Day 7 - Time for some rip-roaring fun in the Smoky Mountains! Today we will spend the day at Dollywood. So many things to see and do - crafts, shows, rides, food - are all part of a great day in Dollywood!
