

MICHIGAN & WISCONSIN ADVENTURE

August 19 – 27, 2012

Frankenmuth, Mackinac Island, Milwaukee

- Days 1 & 2 Travel to Frankenmuth, Michigan
- Day 3 Today we tour Frankenmuth. We will enjoy German hospitality and the beauty of the area in this authentic Bavarian community. We'll take some time to visit Bronner's Christmas Wonderland, the largest Christmas store in the world.
- Day 4 Next we'll make our way to Mackinaw City where we'll board the ferry to Mackinac Island for a two night stay. These charming islands, where motorized vehicles are not allowed, provide us with history, beautiful scenery, and, of course, fudge! We'll stay at the Lake View Hotel, in the heart of downtown.
- Day 5 This morning we'll have a horse-drawn trolley tour of Mackinac Island that includes a stop at Fort Mackinac. Our tour will end at the Grand Hotel where we will be amazed by the fabulous buffet luncheon. This afternoon and evening will be free for you to enjoy the island
- Day 6 After returning to the mainland by ferry, we will make our way across the Mackinac Bridge – which is the longest suspension bridge in the western hemisphere. We'll then travel around the northern shores of Lake Michigan on our way to Milwaukee, Wisconsin for a two night stay.
- Day 7 Our day will be spent touring the Milwaukee area. Highlights include: Milwaukee – a city tour, Harley Davidson Museum, Pabst Mansion, Grohmann Museum and Reiman Publications Visitor Center (Country Woman, and Taste of Home are two of their publications.)
- Day 8 & 9 Travel Home.
